TO HIS EXCELLENCY
THE MOST REVEREND JOHN C. CODY, D.D.
BISHOP OF LONDON

ON THE OCCASION OF THE SILVER JUBILEE
OF HIS CONSECRATION AS BISHOP

WE RESPECTFULLY AND REVERENTLY DEDICATE
THE ST. ROSE HIGH SCHOOL YEARBOOK

The following letter is a copy of the one His Excellency Bishop Cody received from His Holiness Pope John XXIII, on the occasion of his Silver Jubilee.

TO OUR VENERABLE BROTHER,
JOHN CHRISTOPHER CODY,
BISHOP OF LONDON:

Although the anniversary of your reception of the sacred mitre is a feast-day for you every year, this time it will hold special meaning, for it will mark your 25th year in the ranks of the episcopate.

That your happiness on this occasion may be increased by our rejoicing together, Venerable Brother, we are sending this letter conveying to you our prayers and our heartfelt love—a love which it is our pleasure to express and yours, we are sure, to hear openly declared once again.

While sending our good wishes we also wish to congratulate you, for you have given a splendid example of piety and of faith, of diligence and of zeal both in the Diocese of Victoria, your first charge, and in the Diocese of London, the object of your care as Co-adjutor to Bishop J. T. Kidd, of happy memory, and as Ordinary since 1950. You are a good shepherd, watchful for the welfare of your flock, striving constantly for its betterment. In prayer, in word and in work you are and will continue to be zealous that "the peace of justice and the honour of piety" (Baruch V,4) may flourish among your people for the greater glory of God and the honour of the Catholic name.

What you have begun so well, we entreat you to continue with confidence and perseverance. To this end we beg God with loving prayer, that He may grant you wisdom in your planning, a sturdy health, virtue to vanquish all obstacles, a gentle kindness of manner tempered with firmness and that distinguished pattern of life which is in keeping with your office. In the words of our Predecessor St. Gregory the Great, "May you be afire with heavenly ambition, alight with the Word of God. If sincerity in our teaching is to be maintained, we must maintain as well the highest standard of holiness" (Homily on Ezech. hom. XI, 7). In order too, to give greater spiritual benefit to your 25th Anniversary we grant you the faculty to bless, on a day of your choice, the faithful who assist at your Solemn Pontifical Mass, in Our name and with our Authority and attach thereto a Plenary Indulgence.

Finally, Venerable Brother, it is with pleasure that we bestow upon you and upon all the flock committed to your care, Our Apostolic Blessing.

The Vatican, the 12th day of January, 1962, the Fourth year of Our Pontificate.

John PP XXIII

Pictured here with Sandra Deslippe and Jacqueline Dufour, winners in the patron drive, are a portion of the students who solicited financial backing for our Yearbook. Subscriptions cover only a portion of the cost of publication. Willing and generous response of benefactors is a deciding factor in the quality of the book. Therefore we thank most heartily our patrons and advertisers for making possible an annual of which we are justly proud.

OUR PASTOR'S MESSAGE

With your graduation you have come to the end of your high school days and your stay at St. Rose High School. Strangely enough the exercise that marks the end of these days is called "Commencement". And yet how fitting! Your life for the past four years marked your advent to young manhood and womanhood. You have advanced in age. How different in body the young men and women graduates are from the boys and girls who entered ninth grade four years ago. You have advanced in wisdom. How different in mind the sophisticated graduates are from the timid freshmen. During these four years your parents, teachers and priests have earnestly prayed that you would advance in grace. If during these days your model was the Teen-age Christ who advanced in age and wisdom and grace before God and men, you are a shining example of a Catholic education. We assume that you are, and consequently are proud of you.

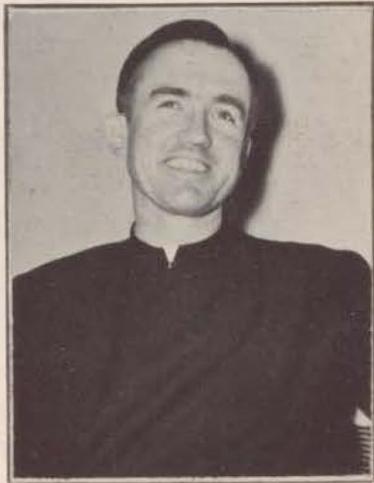

In the days ahead, of which your graduation day is the "commencement", often recall to mind the teaching of your school, especially your part in offering the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Keep your eyes on your model of high school days and continue to advance with Him in age and wisdom and grace. Only in this way will you retain the peace and happiness of youth through this life, even to eternity. God bless you.

ST. ROSE HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION DAY

Sunday, June eleventh, was graduation day, day of achievement, when twenty St. Rose High School girls and boys proudly walked down the aisle to receive the long-coveted diploma, the symbol of success.

At the eight o'clock Mass, celebrated by our pastor, Reverend J. E. Martin, C.S.B., the graduates knelt together to receive Holy Communion as a class for the last time.

The graduation breakfast was prepared by members of the Parent-Teacher Association and served by the Grade XI students. St. Rose School was transformed for the occasion into a beautiful banquet hall bedecked with flowers, decorative diplomas and caps, and featuring a lovely Shrine of our Blessed Mother and a quaint Wishing Well.

At three o'clock the solemn strains of Pomp and Circumstance beckoned the graduates. As they moved toward the Church, the warm afternoon sunlight accentuated the beautiful simplicity of the girls in flowing white gowns, their arms filled with roses, assisted by their tiny flower-girls, the boys in robes of black accompanied by charming little page boys. The honours of graduation and the announcement of awards were read by Rev. J. J. Fiore, C.S.B., and conferred by our Pastor. The guest speaker, Rev. P. V. Drouillard of St. Theresa's Parish, Windsor, congratulated the graduates, their parents and teachers for their achievement. In his inspiring sermon he stressed the value of a Catholic education.

An Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus brought the impressive ceremony to a close. In it the graduates expressed their gratitude for their many blessings and offered their entire lives to Our Lord.

Elizabeth Allen—Class of '61.

The annual Rose Ball was held on April 28th, at the Verdi Club. A French Cafe scene with a lovely fountain helped carry out the theme, "Three Coins in a Fountain."

Preceding the prom, a coktail party was given jointly by two of the graduates, Miss Mary Lou Simone and Miss Joan Gignac, at the home of the former.

The soft, pleasant music of the Bill Richardson Orchestra filled the air of the Club. At approximately 11:30, the main event of the evening took place, when Miss Betty Allen was crowned Queen of the Ball by Miss Anne Moore, last year's Queen. Betty, who was escorted by Mr. Mike Blake, was presented with a green and gold sceptre and a dozen long-stemmed red roses. She was assisted by her ladies-in-waiting, Miss Nancy Scarlett, escorted by Mr. Bill Amlin, and Miss Clara DeMarco escorted by Mr. Romano Cervi.

Following the dance, the graduates and their dates enjoyed a party at the home of Mr. Richard Russelo.

The graduates' parents were patrons for this big night and Mr. George Nicholson was Master of Ceremonies.

We, the graduates of '62, wish the graduates of '61, continued success in all their undertakings.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Although the Junior Boys lost every game and the Seniors all but one, it in no way dampened their enthusiasm. Splendid sportsmanship and school spirit characterized both teams throughout the season.

The Senior team was led by captain Jim Shaw, with Edmund Bezaire placing second. Co-captain Albert Pietrangelo averaged 5.2 points per game. Richard Barron with 8.4 led the Juniors, while Stanley Langlois with 3.8 placed second.

We owe Mr. Creery a debt of gratitude for the time and effort he put into building up our teams.

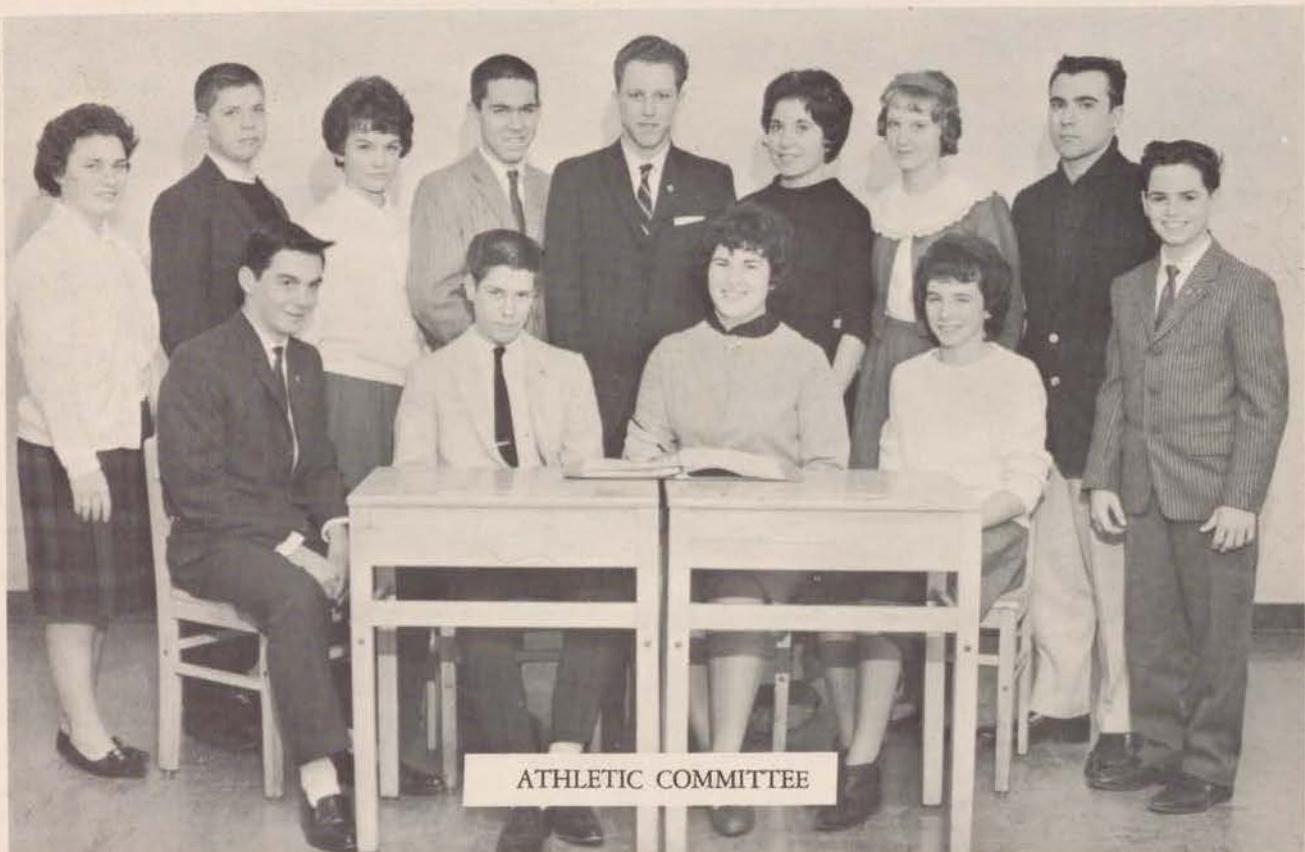

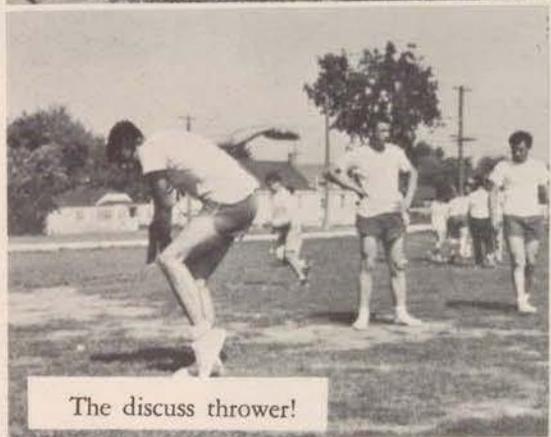

Our Physical Education department was under the direction of Mr. Thomas Foreman and Miss Angela Pajot. A well organized calendar of events kept sports prominent and popular. We particularly enjoyed the outdoor activities in preparation for the local and county track meets. Occasional periods of square dancing provided enjoyable relaxation. Lecture and discussion periods were geared to prepare us emotionally and socially for the future. We thank most heartily Mr. Foreman and Miss Pajot who so generously and sincerely gave of their time and services.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The season was a particularly successful one for the girls. The Seniors with three wins and two losses attained third place in the league, while the Junior Girls ended in fourth place. We attribute our success in large measure to the splendid coaching and patience of Mrs. David Creery and Miss Elizabeth Farkas. To them we extend a hearty thank you.

The guard line-up of the Juniors included Christine Yakopich (captain), Mary Helfrich, Luba Bryksa, Janis Temesy, Peggy Dufour and Carol Martin, who worked with the forwards, Pauline Bezaire (co-captain), Beverley Pouget, Roberta Niven and Marilyn Ruston. The highest scorer of the Juniors was Pauline Bezaire with a 12.4 average, while the top scorers of the Seniors were Nancy Bondy with 13.6 and Judy Burns with 13.2.

Team captain Nancy Bondy for the Seniors set up plays with the other forwards Nancy Pillon, Judy Burns and Sharon Bingham along with co-captain Nancy Gray who worked them out with the guards, Lynda Bondy, Eileen Finn, Mary Anne Robidoux and Angeline Sapalski.

STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Another school year is drawing to a close and with it the activities of the Student Council. We have tried to carry out a program in compliance with the wishes of the students whom we only represent. We thank them for the trust they place in us and if we succeeded in our undertakings it is only because of their wholehearted support.

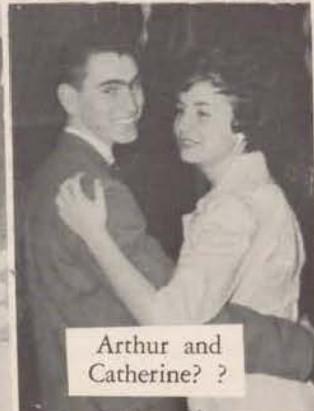

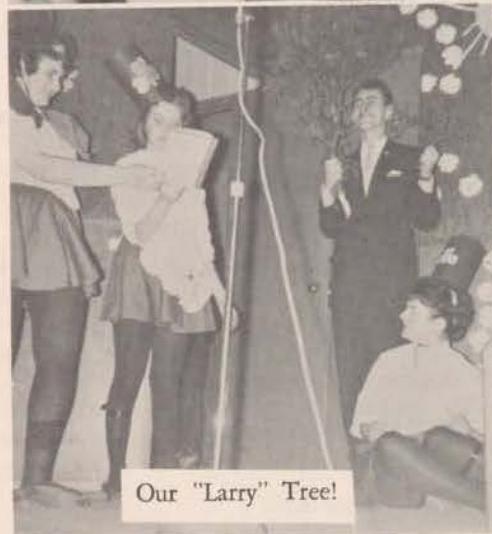

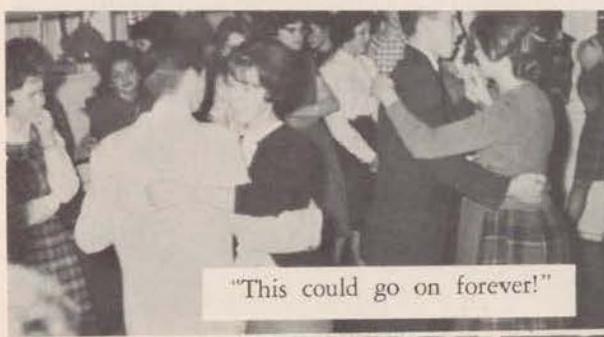

Some of us are writing the concluding sentences of another chapter in our lives. It will end with Graduation. We have recourse to prayer to thank those whose combined efforts make this achievement possible for us—our zealous priests, devoted teachers and self-sacrificing parents. We must part also with the companions who shared with us our joys, ambitions and anxieties. Our paths now branch off in different directions but the memory of friends will linger always. In parting we pledge our love and loyalty to St. Rose.

Yearbook Staff

We would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all those who contributed, even in a small way, toward the success of our Yearbook.

We owe a deep debt of gratitude to our pastor and our teachers for the guidance and encouragement they gave us in this project.

Through the combined efforts of the students of St. Rose and St. John's we have been able to finance our annual and to present to you a book filled with memories which will carry you back in the years to come to your happy high school days.

INTERMEDIATE DIPLOMA

Reverend J. E. Martin, Pastor, graciously presented the certificates to the thirty-two jubilant graduates of St. John the Baptist School who successfully completed the course of studies leading to the Intermediate Diploma and promotion to Grade XI.

Peter Thrasher's rendition of Ave Maria and Danny Boy delighted both the graduates and their parents. The ceremony was climaxed by a luncheon sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association.

SECONDARY SCHOOL DIPLOMA

MAY CROWNING

May closed with a colorful and impressive ceremony as the students of our schools assembled to pay especial homage to our Blessed Mother.

A statue of the Blessed Virgin was carried in procession to St. Rose School as the participants recited the Rosary and sang hymns. At St. Rose amid a profusion of flowers Diane Bastien was crowned May Queen and she in turn crowned the Blessed Virgin at the beautiful shrine erected in the Church. After an Act of Consecration, and a congratulatory message to the Queen and her Court delivered by Rev. J. J. Fiore, the unforgettable day ended with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Queen and her Court comprised the students obtaining the highest marks in religion in the various senior classes, namely, Diane Bastien, Queen, assisted by Betty Allen, Norman Talbot, Pauline Bezaire, Maria Kehl, Jim Shaw, Patricia Coyle, Christine Yakopich, Terry McBride, Barbara Sutts, Bernard Bezaire, Mary McBride, Roy Fells, Rose Ann Kelly, Joseph Menna, Diane Iler, David Mailloux, Barbara Pillon, Patrick Major, Biagina Fortini, Michael Burns, Janis Beaudoin, Michael Wigle.

REVEREND V. THOMPSON, C.S.B., our spiritual director gave unstintingly of his time in preparing the members for their weekly Gospel inquiry and in aiding the sections.

Y.C.S. is a student movement encouraged by our Beloved Bishop, the aim of which is to help students to realize their responsibilities and to encourage them to assist their fellow students in any of their needs.

By the observe, judge and act technique Y.C.S. leaders step forward and carry student problems to adults or responsible groups who can assist in solving them once they are made aware of their existence.

We began our year with a study week-end at Assumption University. Along with other Y.C.S. groups we participated in a review and recollection of last year's spiritual and social activities and an examination of the program for the coming year.

Back home again we had our elections which resulted in Maria Kehl heading the senior girls' section as president and Larry Allen the boys' section. Regina Dupuis and Edmund Bezaire were chosen secretaries for their respective groups, Judy Amlin and Edmund Bezaire treasurers.

Our Full-time workers—Ray Robinet and Andy Paul—at Y.C.S. Headquarters.

THE CLASS PROPHECY

May 29, 1979.

Dear Diary:

Today is my birthday and my husband, Dr. Mike White, is taking time off to take me on a little vacation.

June 20, 1979.

Dear Diary:

We have just arrived in Vancouver, B. C., but I must first tell you of my visit to my dear home town of Amherstburg. Of course it is no longer a quiet and little place but a progressive young city.

Upon arrival we checked in at the magnificent Lakeview Hotel, now under the management of Shortie Bezaire. While I was unpacking I noticed my husband gazing at a magazine cover. I took a peek and who but a lovely blue-eyed female was staring back at him. I snatched the magazine from him when I finally recognized her to be Carol Rogers, a former classmate of mine. She was "Life" cover-girl for the month of June. After unpacking we went touring the town. Some of the old buildings were still standing but most of them had been rebuilt. The new Canadian National Bank was now under the management of Mary Anne Robidoux and her husband, Toni. Talking to Mary Anne later, I learned that Robert Burns now owned the city's largest funeral parlour.

Most of all, I longed to see dear old St. Rose, the school which had brought so much happiness to so many people. To my surprise it was no longer standing, but was replaced by an immense two-story building bearing the name, New St. Rose High. In the spacious vestibule of the new school a short little nun walked up to me. We looked at each other as if to say, "I've seen you somewhere before." Of course we had, for we had graduated together. She was none other than Carol Trombley, now Sister Marietta, principal of the new school. She informed me that two other graduates of '62 were also in the school, Carol Allen, as secretary, and Mrs. Clara Prisley, nee Rocheleau, as French teacher. Later that evening Mike and I dined at the "Coffee Garden," the biggest restaurant in town, owned by Anne McBride and operated by Mary Anne Deslippe. While talking over old times with Mary Anne I found out that Sandra Deslippe was happily married to Eric Niven, had three fine boys and was residing on a large horse ranch somewhere in Texas.

On leaving the restaurant I bumped into another old classmate, Nancy Bondy and her husband, Louie. They had been married for twelve years and had five children, the eldest ten and the youngest two. After leaving the restaurant we went dancing at the "Golden Slipper" owned and operated by Nancy Gray and her husband, Gary. On the dance floor I bumped into Pauline Bezaire. She said that she had just returned from Venezuela where she was doing missionary work. She also told me that Regina Dupuis was now a missionary nurse stationed in South Viet Nam assisting Dr. Flicia Kehl. After an enjoyable evening we retired to our suite, tired but happy.

Before leaving Amherstburg Sunday morning we attended an early Mass at St. John the Baptist Church. Imagine my astonishment, when who should walk into the Sanctuary to say Mass but Father John Iler, now Pastor of the remodelled and beautified Church. Leaving the church I had to give in to my curiosity and look up to the balcony to see who possessed the beautiful voice. I could hardly believe my eyes when I saw Bernice Amlin.

Mike and I started directly for the airport. Suddenly we heard a blare of police sirens and Constable Jim Shaw whizzed by. Up ahead in front of the "Fox's Sports Car Shop" a 1960 Ford owned by Tom Dufour, the famous Drag Strip Ace, was perched on top of a brand new TR-3 sports car. The irate proprietor, whom I recognized as Frank Fox, although his fine head of curly red hair was now streaked with silver, came raging out. Not being able to afford any more time we moved on. Finally reaching the airport we had breakfast and then flew directly to Vancouver. We checked in at a big hotel, but the heat being so oppressive we sought refuge at a beach. I had almost dozed off on the warm sand when I was awakened by loud screaming of girls. A tall, dark, handsome and muscular young man dashed by, followed by the swarm of screaming girls. I only got a glimpse of him, but I recognized at once one of my old fellow students, Richard Pillon. Later I found out that he had just been chosen "Mr. Canada."

That evening Mike took me to Canada's multi-million dollar night-club, the "Cocamoe" which was owned jointly by Goldie Laframboise and Di Di Leclerc. There we were entertained by one of Canada's most hilarious comedy teams, Judy Burns and Larry Allen, better known to the world as Burns and Allen. Talking with Judy backstage I learned that Maria Kehl was a professor at the Stratford School of Fine Arts and that our friend, Shirley Côté was one of Dr. Ben Casey's favourite nurses.

June 29, 1979.

Dear Diary:

We have just arrived home and I can't help thinking of the wonderful trip and the memories of days gone by that it has reawakened. I wish all my companions of school days the very best of luck and happiness in the future.

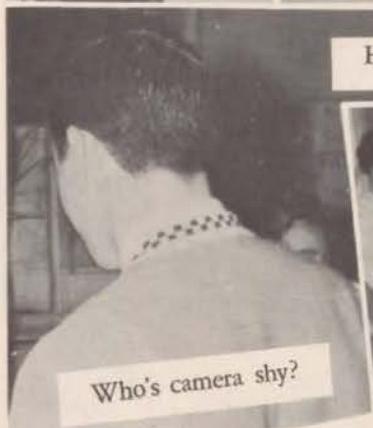

Always yours,
Susie.

TRACK MEET

The local track meet was a big day at St. Rose. In the friendly competition the following emerged as champions: Senior Boys, Bud Bondy; Senior Girls, Mary Ann Robidoux; Intermediate Boys, Jim Ruston; Intermediate Girls, Roberta Niven and Sandra Gibb; Junior Boys, John Bryksa; Junior Girls, Antoinette Pasquale.

At Kingsville we were far from leading point-wise . . . but spirit-wise . . . no school surpassed St. Rose!

Service with a smile.

We get paid for this.

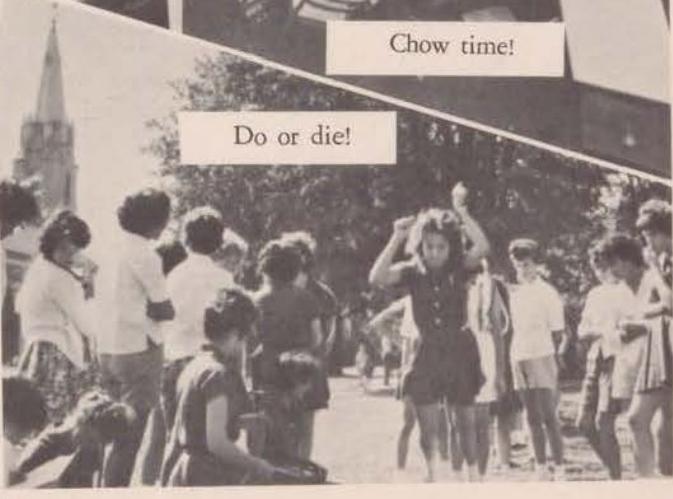

Where's the bus driver?

Kingsville bound!

Chow time!

Do or die!
